Christ Arose

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

The great news of Easter is that Christ arose! If the thirteenth chapter of 1 Corinthians is called the love chapter, then the fifteenth chapter should be called the resurrection chapter. This chapter provides incredible teaching about the future resurrection of the dead, the resurrection body, and the victory that believers have over death. But, most importantly, in our passage this morning, this chapter reinforces the reality of Christ's resurrection.

Notice, Christ's resurrection is...

I. _____ in the Gospel (vv.1-2)

- See Romans 10:9

II. _____ to the Christian Faith (vv.3-7)

- See 1 Corinthians 15:14
- We can trust the veracity of Christ's resurrection because:
 1. It has been _____ through tradition (v.3)
 2. It was _____ by the prophets (v.4)
 - See Isaiah 53:10-12; Psalm 16:10; Psalm 110:1-4
 3. It was _____ by appearances (vv.5-7)

III. _____ by an Untimely Witness (vv.8-11)
